IONE, CALIFORNIA

WE DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK TO YOU,

Coach Traverso

FOR ALL THE ENTHUSIASM AND CONFIDENCE
YOU HAVE GIVEN TO IONE HIGH SCHOOL.

COACH TRAVERSO has been with Ione High School since 1977, and with him he brought a winning attitude. He has given the students a chance to believe in themselves and to come out winners, even when they lost a game. He has spent a lot of time and effort coaching football, track, and wrestling, when it was here. He is the head advisor for BLOCK I and is the Athletic Director. To the Class of '82, he is special because he has been their class advisor since the freshman year.

PRINCIPAL

This yearbook represents a pictorial history of your year at Ione High School. I hope that it has been both a profitable and a pleasant year for you. You will never have this particular experience again, but through the pages of this book, you can, in future years, take a happy, nostalgic look at the good old days at Ione High.

PRESIDENT

Terry Griffith

An experience that will influence a lifetime—I suppose that summarizes the past four years here at Ione. We have seen many changes in this high school since 1978. Some of these will leave impressions on us for the rest of our lives. We have witnessed changes in administration, faculty, and within our fellow classmates as well. I believe all of these changes have matured our high school to become, "The Better School."

In the years to come, I look forward to this school becoming better and better. We understand that Ione may be combined with Jackson. This may open new doors to education, athletics, and a new and different type of high school. We shall see!

Finally, I would like to thank the people involved with operating the school and thank the Class of 1982. I wish them the best in years to come and look forward to staying in touch.

Editor's Message

Thinking back on this year, I realized how soon it was going to end. But while working on the yearbook, we could look back on the pages and recall each event.

The yearbook staff had a lot of fun selling ads, choosing pictures, and putting the pages together; but there were times, I must admit, when we felt like just sitting back and letting it get done by itself . . . like when senior pictures did not come in on time and missing some deadlines. Yes, I learned that a person has to be punctual. (I don't know what good that did me, but I learned it!)

KELLY SULLIVAN is next year's editor, so to her I wish the best of luck. It's a really interesting experience. It's a working together. I hope her staff will work together as a team. The staff of 1982 was a great team!

Dean's Message

When in your later life you reflect back to this school year, you will remember the bad as well as the good. The games won or lost, the dances, the exciting classes, the boring classes, the teachers, the administrators, the boyfriends or girlfriends—these and many more memories will slip in and out of your thoughts the rest of your life. Cherish them, for you will never be able to relive them again.

The highs and lows of this year are now behind us; and reflecting back, it has been a fantastic year, despite the lows. Those of you who are leaving will venture out into a world that needs you to make it a better place to live. Make the best of it! Those of you who are returning should make the following years just as great by giving your ALL! When the time to turn out the lights has come, you can hold your head up and say, "I'm proud of my school, my state, my country, but most of all, I'm proud of myself for doing my best."

Good luck to everyone and may the FORCE be with you!

Working with a budget of $1.3 million, the IUSD Board meets the second Tuesday of each month to set policy for both Ione Elementary School and Ione High School. Two changes at the high school saw a shift in administration to a superintendent-principal position and a part time Dean of Students. The second change is still in flux. Originally, the football season was to be replaced by soccer in 1982-83, but if a citizen's committee can raise $4,000 by summer of 1982, football will be retained for next year.

Promoting Ione's successful football season and previewing the Homecoming win against Esparto, the Spirit Club decorated the campus with bunting and banners proclaiming the last of September and the first days of October, 1981, as SPIRIT WEEK. Students came costumed to school and paraded at noon hour down Main St. Tuesday witnessed an auction of "slaves" from the freshman football squad and from the Rally Committee and poured $85 into the student activity fund. The week ended with the Homecoming Game on Saturday, October 3, the crowning of the Queen at halftime, and the dance that evening.

Homecoming Game

The 1981 Homecoming Game lifted the spirits of the Student Body high this year as the Mustang eleven rolled over Esparto 12-0, the first Homecoming win in 15 years. QUEEN DONNA BONHAM was crowned at halftime of the October 3rd game.

Time out for a Pepsi? It was OK during lunch hour and after school. And it was the Student Council who serviced the soda pop machine in the Office. Profits from the 50¢ charge helped defray Council expenses. Another big money raiser was the raffle held during Open House in April where a day on a pontoon boat at Lake Camanche was the first prize. Major beneficiary of the raffle was the athletic fund for paying referees, which was running a large deficit.

Meeting each Thursday morning in Mrs. Witebsky's room, the Council made by-laws changes and conducted a special election in November to expand the Spirit Squads. In the spring, the Council sponsored an assembly featuring the basketball wizardry of a seventy-year old performer.

FALL CSF TRIP

Tuesday, November 24, 1981, the fall honor rip of the Ione High School CSF'ers saw thir- een of the school's most studious students and dvisors attempt to take in the whole city of San Francisco in one day. Golden Gate Park nd its museum were the first on the agenda. After sack lunches in the park and a chance to njoy the sea air, it was time for Ghiradeli quare and a shopping spree. Next it was a iew of the ocean and Fisherman's Wharf. To ap off the day, the thirteen had dinner and musement at Pier 39.

BLOCK I

The school athletes were in charge of the refreshment stand for the CVCC Basketball Tournament in February. Another money raiser was the dunking booth in May at Homecoming. But it was VIVE LES BOYS, held March 27, that was the highlight of hte year.

SCIENCE CLUB

Activities

A rainy December 12, 1981, the rugged Science Club members boarded a bus bound for San Joaquin Delta College and the Planetarium performance of "Star of Bethlehem". But it was the end of April the next spring when the members really enjoyed themselves on a weekend outing to the tidepools around Bodega Bay.

During the year, members manned the concession stand at girls' basketball games to raise funds for the trips and for the club's annual donation to the American Cancer Society and for the local scholarship award to a senior pursuing a science career.

A monthly project was the goal of the business leaders of tomorrow. In September the members did the offset printing of school office forms. In October they presented each teacher with a shiny apple and on October 24 attended the Northern Section FBLA workshop at Colusa. In November and December, the geratric patients at Kit Carson Convalescent Hospital were remembered, first with Thanksgiving cards and then with Advent Calendars. February was a doubly busy month. The club sold Valentine's Day Flowers to support the funding of a national headquarters building in Washington D.C.

March 13 was the big day for the members to enter various contests of business skills at the Northern Section FBLA Conference at Sacramento City College. Topping the year off was attendance at the State Conference at San Jose on April 23-25. To support this busy schedule, the members slated many fund raisers, including publishing a bi-weekly school newspaper.

HAWKINS DANCE

Foot stomping music by Buzzi Bamert and Shawn Curran set the mood for a hillbilly night in the gym. Bales of hay and straw provided seating for a host of L'il Abners and Daisy Maes. Postponed several times since the traditional time in November, the senior dance finally opened with hayseed decorations in place between semesters on January 30, from 8 till 11. Dancers in Dogpatch costumes gyrated to the beat of music ranging from rock to country, from square to blue-

Friday and Saturday evenings, November 6-7 1981, saw the footlights rise in the All-Purpose Room at Ione Elementary School for "UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE." Friday evening was a dinner show featuring ham and spaghetti. Profits of $550 went toward new audio-visual equipment for the school.
